Subject: Announcement of the Panj Pardhani Council of Sarbat Khalsa

While various Sikh circles have been engaged in discussions for a long time regarding the revival and structuring of Sarbat Khalsa, Sikh thinkers from across the globe have now come together to form an working model for organizational structure under the panch-pardhani concept for Sarbat Khalsa.

As defined in the By-laws, an online gathering of the Panchayat members of the Sarbat Khalsa organization was held on 1 Vaisakh / 14 April 2025. During this meeting, the names of the Panj Pyare for the Panch Pardhani Council were announced as follows:

1. S. Nirmal Singh Ji (Victoria, BC)
2. S. Gurpreet Singh Ji GP (Bahrain)
3. Dr. Khushhaal Singh Ji (Chandigarh)
4. Giani Amritpal Singh Ji (Ludhiana)
5. S. Satbir Singh Ji (Delhi)

These names were finalized with the consensus of the 25-member Gursikh Core Committee through a series of meetings held continuously over the past month. According to the constitution of Sarbat Khalsa, the Gursikh Core Committee was responsible for reaching a consensus on the five Panj Pyare for the Principal Council, who were to be selected from among the Sarbat Khalsa Panchayat representatives, with representation as follows: two from Punjab, one from the rest of India, one from the G7 nations, and one from the rest of the world.
